Browsers, phishing, and user interface design

Scott Granneman, 2006-06-05

Phishing works for so many reasons, we need to rethink browser and user interface design to provide some real-life security to the average user who doesn't see or understand the security cues.

Occasionally a criminal is so, well, clever that you have to admire him even as you wish that he spends the rest of his life in jail. Take Arnold Rothstein, for instance. One of the kingpins of organized crime in New York City during Prohibition and before, the "Great Brain," as he was termed, was more than likely behind the infamous Black Sox scandal, in which the 1919 World Series was fixed in favor of the Cincinnati Reds. He is also widely credited with inventing the floating crap game immortalized in Guys and Dolls. Like some character out of a Damon Runyon story, Rothstein's "office" was outside of Lindy's Restaurant, at Broadway and 49th Street, and he

" Answer me this truthfully: do you really trust Aunt Sally or Steve in Accounting or your kid sister Brooke to carefully read an anti-phishing warning, ponder the ramifications, and then make a wise choice? If you answer in the affirmative, then you haven't read Why Phishing Works. "

Planning

Mold your email folder structure into the one used by Gmail

2 levels of folders max

Friends

Friends/Jackie

~~Friends/Jackie/Project A~~

Don’t freak!

Simply your folders & rely on search

(& beware of automatic migration tools)

2 ways to migrate:

✓ Manually
✓ 2-way synchronization

Manually

Set up IMAP at Gmail

Connect to Gmail in your mail client

Manually copy messages

Advantages

✓ Metadata preserved
✓ Control
✓ Automatic labeling

Disadvantages

✓ Takes a looooooong time
✓ Tedious

Gmail collapses threads into conversations

You transfer 5000 messages

Gmail reports 2000 conversations

Don’t panic

Sync

If you use the Premier or Education Editions, you can use Google's free with default CSV exports, but you may have to massage it

Test with a few contacts first!

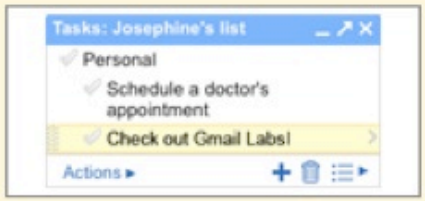
Mail Labs: our testing ground for experimental features

Mail engineers come up with new ideas all the time. Mail Labs is our place to try them out and get your feedback. None of these features are really ready for prime time yet, so they may change, break or disappear at any time.
Learn more about Mail Labs

If (when) a Labs feature breaks, and you're having trouble getting into your account, there's an escape hatch -- just go to https://mail.google.com/a/granneman.com/?labs=0 and Labs will be temporarily disabled.



Tasks
by The Tasks Team

Tasks is a way to help you keep track of what you need to do and what you've already done. Tips:

1. Manage your email workflow better by converting emails into tasks: "More Actions > Add to Tasks"
2. ENTER creates a new task, TAB and SHIFT-TAB indent and un-indent, CTRL-UP and CTRL-DOWN let you reorder from the keyboard, and SHIFT-ENTER toggles back and forth between the detailed view for a task and the main view
3. After turning Tasks on, turn on Keyboard shortcuts in "Settings > General" and then use "SHIFT-T" to create tasks from your emails - even faster than using the More Actions menu
