Events shown in time zone: Central Time

Overview

This is a calendar of information technology and scientific events in the Greater St. Louis metro area and surrounding regions. Not all events are sponsored SLUUG events. Most, not all, are FREE.

Address any requests for additions, changes or corrections to editor@sluug.org

WARNING! This calendar is human maintained and the data is NOT always verified. You should visit individual sites to confirm ALL data!

Past Totals

The number of face-to-face IT and Scientific events listed, each month, as of the end of December 2013:

Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
2011
?	?	105	108	103	117	105	105	105	113	103	96
2012
110	104	122	123	138	111	99	124	122	133	114	111
2013
123	128	136	147	144	146	139	145	167	153	140

Extra Features

In general, there are three different pairs of addresses associated with this combined calendar.

1. Subscription links to:

SLUUG sponsored events,

General STL Metro Area events.

2. Link to, or download the VCS/ICS data for local calendar use, such as the Lightning add-on to Thunderbird:

SLUUG sponsored events,

General STL Metro Area events.

3. Direct browser link to calendar without headers/ footers:

SLUUG sponsored events,

General STL Metro Area events.

To make use of them, read additional technical information on the Google About the Calendar Address page.

Notes

Free Meetings

There are scores of educational meetings in the Saint Louis Metro Area in any given month.

Please visit the SLUUG calendar for specific times, locations and topics.

SLUUG provides a central forum, specialized forums and LUGs (Linux User Groups) each with free monthly meetings. Below are a few of the regularly scheduled groups:

St. Louis Area Computer Club -- first Thursday
SLUUG General meeting - second Wednesday
St. Louis Novell Users Group -- third Wednesday
St. Louis Linux Users Group -- third Thursday
Hazelwood Linux Users Group -- fourth Tuesday

We look forward to seeing you at a meeting soon!
